LAW DAY

We will celebrate Law Day with an awards program from 3 - 5 p.m., on Thursday, April 25, in ROOMS 102-103. A list of award recipients is on the main bulletin board. A champagne reception to be held in the second floor student lounge will follow the ceremony.

FACULTY NEWS

The symposium on Law and Philosophy for which PROFESSOR RANDY BARNETT was the faculty editor was just published in volume 8, number 1 of the Harvard Journal of Law and Public Policy. Professor Barnett wrote the foreword to the symposium entitled "Why We Need Legal Philosophy."

On April 13, Professor Barnett discussed restitution to victims of crime at a conference on the privatization of public services in Memphis, Tennessee. On April 15, he spoke to members of the Harvard Society for Law and Public Policy in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

PROFESSOR PHILIP HABLUTZEL will speak at a seminar for the entire Chicago Bar Association, sponsored by its Corporation Law Committee, Wednesday afternoon, April 24. The presentation, "Criminal Prosecution for Breach of Fiduciary Duty in the Corporate Context (Directors, Officers, and Employees)," will trace the use of criminal prosecutions under the federal mail fraud and wire fraud statutes since 1975 as it expanded from use against politicians (Governors Kerner & Mendel, Alderman Keane, etc) to its use against lawyers and business-persons who violate conflict-of-interest rules. The co-speaker will be William Thomas Huyck, a graduate of the University of Chicago Law School. As an Assistant U.S. Attorney (1968-1974), Mr. Huyck prosecuted a number of these cases, and as a private practitioner since 1973, he has defended a number of these "white collar crime" cases.

PROFESSOR RICHARD KLING was appointed to the Felony Court Task Force of the Special Commission on the Administration of Justice in Cook County. Also, Professor Kling will appear on the Common Ground television program on Saturday, April 20 and on Friday, April 26. He will speak on the admissibility of hypnotically induced testimony in court. The program will be shown at 2:30 a.m. on both days. Those who don't plan to be up so late (or so early) might want to set their video recorder and view Professor Kling on their own time.

RESEARCH ASSISTANTS NEEDED

PROFESSOR RANDY BARNETT is looking for a research assistant to work in the contract law area this summer. Any interested student should submit a resume and transcript to Professor Barnett (room 312). Those who wish to supplement other part-time employment are encouraged to apply.

PROFESSOR MARTIN MALIN is seeking a research assistant to work this summer doing research on a union's duty of fair representation and on the Landrum-Griffin Act.

RESEARCH ASSISTANTS NEEDED (cont'd)

PROFESSOR SHELDON NAHMOD seeks two research assistants for this summer to work on civil rights and civil liberties issues. Pay or independent research credit is available. Six to eight hours weekly required. Constitution Law II is a prerequisite. Please call Professor Nahmod at 567-5761 or contact him in his office, room 502, if interested.

PROFESSOR SHELVIN SINGER requires the services of a research assistant for the remainder of this year, summer 1985 and next year. Excellent spelling and grammatical ability essential. Criminal Procedure research will be the primary activity.

CAREER PLANNING AND PLACEMENT NEWS

National Alumni Advisor Program

Students seeking advisors on job opportunities in other parts of the country can pick up a handout from the Career Planning and Placement Office now. Names and addresses of alumni advisors in 18 cities nationwide are available.

Attention August 1984 Entrants

By this time you probably have many questions about how to best use your law school education, which career alternatives will be open to you when you graduate and what lawyers really do. We can offer you an opportunity to begin answering these questions by requesting an alumni advisor. We will try to match requesting students and advisors on the basis of shared legal interest. Come to the Career Planning and Placement Office immediately to apply if you wish to take advantage of this opportunity.

Attention 1986 Graduates

Justice Thomas J. Moran, Supreme Court of Illinois in Waukegan, is now accepting applications from 1986 graduates for a judicial law clerk position to begin in September 1986. The application deadline is June 1, 1985. Information is available in the Career Planning and Placement Office, handout item #42.

Contact Debra Karlan, room 637, 567-5230.

The assistant facilities manager should be prepared to start sometime during the summer. This position may be an ideal opportunity for an evening division law student who has expertise in the use of computers and is interested in a career in law and computers upon graduation.

The Computer Center has openings for lab assistants for the summer. Familiarity with microcomputers is preferred. Pay rate is $5.25 per hour. Interested students should see or call Debra Karlan, room 637, 567-5230.

THE LAW REVIEW is seeking a secretary to work in the Law Review office beginning this summer. The job description consists of miscellaneous duties including typing and filing. The person hired should plan on working in the fall, 1985 and the spring, 1986 semesters, as well as during the summer, 1985 semester. This is a part-time position, and the salary is the standard law school rate. Interested persons should contact Sharon Gisselman or Lisa Waggoner in the Law Review office, room 331.

A MESSAGE FOR ALL CHICAGO-KENT STUDENTS ABOUT THE COMPUTER STUDY PARTICIPANTS

We are about to conclude the third microcomputer experimental law student study conducted at the IIT Center for Law and Computers. Professor Staudt would like to express his personal appreciation to all the students in the first year class of January, 1984 and the volunteers from the first year law student classes of fall 1984 and January 1985 who participated in experimental computer studies. These students have given of their time and energy in an important effort to gather valuable information about the use of computers in legal education. The contribution of the Chicago-Kent student volunteers is helping to open doors of law schools across the country to computer support and education for students.

MINI INTRODUCTION TO THE USE OF MICROCOMPUTERS IN LAW SCHOOL

The IIT Center for Law and Computers is developing a new set of materials to help introduce law student to the use of microcomputers as study aids and productivity tools in law school. The same set of classes will train students in the resources that are available at the Center and help them adapt these resources to their own study and writing applications. We will offer this mini-course during the summer session. Although no academic credit will be awarded, a student who completes the course will be certified competent to use the computer facilities of the law school. The cost of the course, including all materials and access to the lab during its open hours through the summer, is $100. The schedule of the summer course will be determined based on student preference. Interested students should see Debra Karlan, room 637, 567-5230, no later than Friday April 26, to indicate their time preference.

MINI INTRODUCTION (Cont'd)

ASSOCIATION OF TRIAL LAWYERS OF AMERICA SCHOLARSHIP

The Auxiliary of the Association of Trial Lawyers of America will confer a $1000 scholarship on a Chicago-area law student for the 1985-86 academic year. The Auxiliary has asked the law school to nominate a student to receive the award.

Students who wish to be considered for the law school's nomination should submit a letter of application and an authorization to the school to release their academic records to the Auxiliary (if they are nominated) no later than noon on Thursday, April 24. Letters of application should be submitted to Dean Kleiman, Room 306.
